MATTERS ARISING: None.

MATCH CAPTAIN AND MATCH SECRETARY's REPORT: Sheila was very happy to report our Trudy Bates win over Horncastle, Well Done Ladies.

Also her sponsored day on the 30th December was a super day and enjoyed by all. Gill presented Sheila with some flowers to say Thank You

TREASURERS REPORT: Judith advised us that our bank balance as at the 31st December was £7394.98, With a further sum to be deducted of £240.00 for the Trudy Bates Food on the 5th January and £162.10 to be deposited, this bringing the current balance to the sum of £7317.08.

SECRETARYS REPORT: I have nothing to report, but let us enjoy the rest of the season as there was a great possibility with the current situation and OMICRON that this may not have continued, should we be thanking Boris.

MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE REPORT: As stated on the club website Ian Kimpton has taken on the role of the club Accountant from Brian Coyne. Congratulations Ian.The next meeting of the Management Committee will be on the 26th January.

CORRESPONDENCE: Nothing to report.

ANY OTHER BUSINESS: Judith Lite Bites Café opened today and we wish her every success. I (JE) had a very nice sandwich with all the trimmings. Lots of Luck.

We had a further chat about a new dart board for the club.Gill played Darts for some years (and very good too) will be looking into as she has a dart board at home,along with some darts. Thank you Gill.

AOB continued: Sandra has asked for the Winter League results to be looked into as her own results do not match.

Well that is another Christmas and New Year flown by. The New Years Eve bash was a great success . Well done to all involved.
